Bio

Pascal has been working for Societe General for 25 years. He is good living and loves good jokes which allowed him to know many people. Pascal also likes the challenge and likes to cross borders every day and he is revolutionary , he wants to makes a difference at her organization.

Frustration

Pascal, who loves challenges, aims to meet up with the hierachi and to invite the General Manager of the general company to share a lunch with him one day.

How this persona will interact with LunchItMe ?

With Lunchltme, Pascal is able to connect with employees that he not already know , to break the corporate codes. By accessing to the contact book in the app, Pascal can filter out people by job, name, and send a request for lunch to the Director General of Société Générale.

Feedbacks

"Lunchltme is a real silos breaker ! i add a few lunches with interns and junior employees this month. it's great way to think out off the box "
